Rev. Barry W. Winchell

Barry was born in South Africa, the son of missionary parents, who returned to the States when he was eight years old. He spent the rest of his school years in Wheaton, Illinois.

Barry graduated from Columbia International University with a B.A. in 1982 where he met his wife Dawn, and Trinity Evangelical Divinity School with and M.A. in 1995. Barry is ordained with The Evangelical Free Church of America (EFCA). Dawn is a registered nurse (RN).

Barry and Dawn joined TEAM in 1987, recruited for TEAM and then served as church planters in Italy until 2003.

Then they returned to the United States where Barry has pastored 2 Evangelical Free Churches in New Jersey.

In 2017 they re-joined TEAM and Barry currently serves as the Regional Executive Director of Europe, the Middle East and Africa (EMEA).

Barry and Dawn have two children, Stephen (36 married to Ashley (Taslim), they live in New York City. And Cristina (29) who lives in Lancaster, PA.

If you ask him his passion he'll probably say making disciples, preaching and spreading the passion of what God is doing in the world, peddling his road bike pursuing his annual mileage goal, and paddling his sea kayak.
